

Black Swan Portraiture Prize

11 August 2014

2014 finalists have been announced.

As Founding Sponsor, we are excited to announce the 40 finalists in the 2014 Black Swan Prize for Portraiture. These have been selected from a record field of 350 entries from across Australia. Just over half of the entries are from outside WA, our very own rival to the Archibald Prize!

The judges say this year's portraits are 'simply striking', the talent and stories the artworks depict are incredible.

This year finalists will be vying for the $50,000 Lester Group Prize and the $7,500 People's Choice Award (we are still seeking a naming sponsor for this award).

Be sure to visit the exhibition at the Linton & Kay Gallery (St Georges Terrace, Perth) during October 9th-19th, 2014.

All credit must go to Tina Wilson and her Board for the establishment and growth of this prize, now at the pinnacle of Australian portraiture.

Enjoy!

2014 Finalist: Australian Gothic, Artist: Dawn Stubbs, Subjects: Neil Barraclough and John Weigard
